

Dear Mr. Powell,

I believe your duty as FCC Commissioner is to look out for the interests of the public and not private business. It is improper to deregulate media ownership which would further consolidate the media industry. If you allow deregulation without public input, then you have not done your job and should resign.